

LEADERMESSAGE

LM

LeaderMessage is a new way of engaging your leaders in their development. It sustains behavioural change by using text messages and other support to coach leaders to apply lessons, live in the workplace. Here's what participants say...

"I wanted to reach out before the holidays and let you know how much I enjoy the messages you send. They are great reminders of what we should be doing as leaders everyday."

Director Corporate Compensation and Benefits, USA.

"I am always learning, Looking at these things helps me to understand my self and what makes me tick" Production Supervisor, UK

"Sometimes I do find it hard to let go, but this was a good example of passing the job over, allowing me to get on with more important issues" From a submitted learning log, UK.

"I like the LeaderMessage very much." Regional OD & Leadership Manager, China

"I am finding it very useful to verify I am using good leadership practice daily and also to trigger new actions with the day's message theme in mind, also in terms of having open discussions with my team".
Supply Chain Supervisor, UK
